this clearly written text explores the rational theology of islam the conflict between the defenders of god and the defenders of reason and the controversy s historical roots

this examination of the mythification of al asan al ba r shows how the transformation of his historical person into a complete myth was accomplished along with the groups responsible for making him say and do what legitimizes their own views and practices debate on freedom of religion as a human right takes place not only in the western world but also in muslim communities throughout the world for muslims concerned for this freedom one of the major difficulties is the punishment for apostasy death for those who desert islam this book argues that the law of apostasy and its punishment by death in islamic law is untenable in the modern period apostasy conflicts with a variety of foundation texts of islam and with the current ethos of human rights in particular the freedom to choose one s religion demonstrating the early development of the law of apostasy as largely a religio political tool the authors show the diversity of opinion among early muslims on the punishment highlighting the substantial ambiguities about what constitutes apostasy the problematic nature of some of the key textual evidence on which the punishment of apostasy is based and the neglect of a vast amount of clear qur anic texts in favour of freedom of religion in the construction of the law of apostasy examining the significant challenges the punishment of apostasy faces in the modern period inside and outside muslim communities exploring in particular how apostasy and its punishment is dealt with in a multi religious muslim majority country malaysia and the challenges and difficulties it faces there the authors discuss arguments by prominent muslims today for an absolute freedom of religion and for discarding the punishment of apostasy a concise study of the practices in islamic commercial law filling a gap in the current literature islamic commercial law is the only book available that combines the theory and practice of islamic commercial law in an english language text from the experts at the international islamic university malaysia the book examines the source materials in the qur an and hadith and highlights the views and positions of leading schools of islamic law without burying the reader in juristic minutia it combines theory with practice to address the needs of students while providing a pragmatic treatment of islamic contracts it provides diagrams for individual contracts to reveal the type and nature of the contractual relationships between parties and discusses all types of fundamental transactions including sales loans debt transfers partnerships and more written by experts from the international islamic university malaysia the leading organisation in research in islamic finance closes a vital gap in the english language literature on islamic commercial law features end of chapter questions to enable self testing and provoke critical thinking an ideal guide for current students researchers and practitioners islamic commercial law offers a concise yet comprehensive coverage of the subject the fourteen studies included in the formation of islamic law have been chosen to serve several purposes simultaneously at a basic level they provide a general if not wholly systematic coverage of the emergence and evolution of law during the first three and a half centuries of islam on another level they reflect the different and at times widely divergent scholarly approaches to this subject matter these two levels combined will offer a useful account of the rise of islamic law not only for students in this field but also for islamicists who are not specialists in matters of law comparative legal historians and others at the same time however and as the introduction to the work argues this collection of distinguished contributions illustrates both the achievements and the shortcomings of paradigmatic scholarship on the formative period of islamic law the concise encyclopedia of islam is a mandatory reference tool that will prove to be indispensable for students of all subjects which concern or touch on the religion and law of islam it includes all the articles contained in the first edition and supplement of the encyclopedia of islam which are particularly related to the religion and law of islam this volume has a vast geographical and historical scope which includes the old arabo islamic empire the islamic states of iran central asia the indian sub continent and indonesia the ottoman empire and the various muslim states and communities in africa europe and the former u s s r the concise encyclopedia of islam contains an extensive index and bibliography this publication has also been published in hardback please click here for details
